COURSE HIGHLIGHT

How well do you think we protect the innocent in this country? Do police powers go far enough, or too far? Should doctors and other professionals be held accountable for being negligent and making mistakes? If you are interested in learning about the criminal justice system and civil law in the UK then this is the course for you!

You will learn about a wide variety of legal aspects, observe real cases in action at the criminal courts here in Teesside and work on a project with a local solicitors firm.
